

Our mission is to proclaim the Gospel to all people so they may know and trust in Jesus as their Savior for eternal life, grow in knowledge and faith, and show this faith in their daily lives.

Singing with the Exiles—Lent

Gathered by the waters of Babylon, Judean exiles wistfully wondered: Is God for real? If so, does He really care about us? What does our future hold? Will this ever change? God's people had watched their world shatter into a million pieces. They were demoralized and disillusioned. Their disaster looked terminal. Do you feel this way?

Does it look as though your current problems are more than you can bear? Do you find yourself asking: Why did this happen? Why did God allow it? Is there any order in the world? Will God really deliver on what He said? Isaiah answers these questions in chapters 40–55 of his book. He announces that just when Israel's history seemed closed and controlled by hopeless Babylonian imperial policy, to the shock and surprise of everyone the Lord will stir up a king named Cyrus and a new exodus will explode in the desert! A Servant will be wounded for our transgressions and crushed for our iniquities. And barren Zion will be given so many children that, like the old woman

Letter from the Pastor

Dear Friends in Christ, Well, as promised, the season of Lent is almost upon us and from Ash Wednesday up to Good Friday we turn our attention to penitential reflection and drawing ourselves closer to God as He first draws us closer to Himself through our reflection on His Holy Word. To help in that endeavor, we have bible devotion on Sunday and daily devotions available as well. I encourage you to participate in all the Midweek services (8:15 AM and 7PM) and immerse yourself in our theme for the year, "Singing with the Exiles" (CPH 2014).

How appropriate for us all as we are in fact, in a certain way, exiles from our sanctuary, as we await the construction to be completed. As we reflect on our yearning to "Get Back" into our preferred place of worship we will have the chance to reflect on God's people, and their yearning to get back to their promised land. If you have lived in a foreign country, with a foreign language, and a predominantly non-

Christian culture, you have a pretty good idea what they felt like. For the rest of us, we can get glimpse of the pain and the hope for redemption that is always assured through God's Holy Word. So pick up your devotions, make sure you come to Devotion on Sunday at 8:45 AM (8:15 AM if you would like extra fellowship coffee and breakfast), and embrace our Lenten preparation!

The other day I caught an interesting VLOG (Video Log) about why the traditional church is in

Stewardship News

Luke 6:30-31 – “Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. And as you wish that others would do to you, do so to them.” Is it really possible to live like this? Would it really work to be so open-handed and generous? Our conscience often reminds us of our failures, and the Lord knows our frailty, that’s for sure! But a life of faith is a life lived in imitation of Jesus. And every follower of Jesus knows that yes, indeed, it is better to give than to receive.

Musical Ministry Thoughts for March

As we approach the end of the season of “light”, we are musically mindful of the somber and reflective season of Lent that is soon upon us. The music being prepared for this solemn season is, I hope, reflective, but not dark and sad. Music by the choirs and handbells will feature music such as “Wondrous Love” – plaintive, but not so dark and sad. But, it is our effort to offer music throughout this upcoming season that is most appropriate and in keeping with the scriptural themes.

And, please know that our Adult Choir, Faith Ringers, any of our musical groups, are always open to anyone. If someone would like to sing just for the Lenten and Easter seasons, that’s great!! Please join us.

Last, I would like to mention two specific groups’ activities: our after-school drama club continues on Tuesdays with 20 plus students. They will be producing a full-length musical, “All Fired Up!” in May. The show tells the story of Shadrack, Meshack, and Abednego. Also, the drama club, along with about a dozen adults, will present a program of short drama sketches in May. Most of them are done with a bit of humor. And, our newest venture, the Children’s’ choir, continues on Wednesdays. This group includes our church members as well as children from our school. We certainly plan to sing at a couple of worship services in the Spring.

Thank you to the adults who help out!!

Thanks to all who come and participate!! Remember: There is always room for more!!

Michael Neas,
Director of Church Music

Bless you for your outreach to our local needy children!

Pastor's Letter (continued)

decline. I found the information very compelling. The vlogger came from a Roman Catholic background. He suggested the reason people are not involved in church, as much these days as in the past, is because it's too easy! Now, that sounds counterintuitive to all we have done to make church more accessible to more people. But, if you consider how the trend downward actually coincided with making church "easier", there may be something to this point. He explained how observance of Holy Days and Saints' Days were increasingly forgone and less expectation toward worship and devotion as the center of the faith was to blame. I have noticed a similar trend in the Lutheran Church and have even been party to flexibility for the sake of more people getting involved. Unfortunately, every time I have made church membership more about ease of participation, I have always found the participation only active when it was easy. I think we can all agree that being a real Christian today is never easy, never was. So, embrace the hard work of the Christian Faith and learn from the mistakes, grow from the painful times, and become a part of a community that shines when times are tough. Kind of the like that old adage, "When the going gets tough the tough gets going" (Joseph P. Kennedy (1888-1969)). Sure, times can be tough, but that is when the Work of the Holy Spirit is at its best, for God says "My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness." 2 Corinthians 12:7-10. What a comfort that God always knows when we are struggling and comes along side of us to help us do the work of the church and accomplish His eternal will. So in the season of Lent, reflect on your response that says, "That's too hard!" And remember the words of Philippians 4:13, "I can do all things through Christ Jesus who strengthens me!"

In His Service,

in the shoe, she won't know what to do! Standing behind these marvelous promises is God's almighty Word. "The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever" (Isaiah 40:8). The exiles are going home!

That's why we are "Singing with the Exiles" as they are restored to their home.

This Lent, Isaiah 40–55 will shape us as we . . .

Meditate upon daily devotions based upon these chapters; Study texts from Isaiah in Sunday morning adult Bible class; and Listen to the following sermons:

- Ash Wednesday: "God Has a Word for That" (Isaiah 41:14–16)
- Lent 1: "He Only Has Eyes for You" (Isaiah 43:1–7)
- Lent 2: "Marked" (Isaiah 44:1–5)
- Lent 3: "Breaking Down the Gates" (Isaiah 45:1–8)
- Lent 4: "Get Out!" (Isaiah 48:17–22)
- Lent 5: "One Little Word Can Fell Him" (Isaiah 49:1–6)
- Holy Thursday: "He Prepares a Table" (Isaiah 49:7–13)
- Good Friday: "All" (Isaiah 52:13–53:12)
- Easter Sunday: "We Are Going Home" (Isaiah 55:6–13)

Plan now to sing with the exiles as we learn from Isaiah to walk the Lenten way to the cross and to the empty tomb. God promises to turn our weeping into joy and our present pain into an endless Alleluia!

LCMS Stewardship Ministry—March

Everything we have and everything we are is a gift of God's providential care. We understand that we're not islands unto ourselves. We could not exist without those who have gone before us and those who walk alongside us. God has given us forefathers in family, country, and faith. We are recipients of what God worked through them. We know God provides for our well-being through these means.

He gives us farmers and ranchers so we can eat. But more than that, God created and gave us all the things those farmers and ranchers cultivate. He gave us the corn, the beans, the wheat, the cows for milking, the steers for grilling. He gave each of those things for our nourishment and sustenance. Without God creating and instilling in those things their taste, their nutritional value, etc., we would not exist.

God gives us doctors, surgeons, nurses, and hospitals. He gives us medicine and medical instruments, and, of course, He gave us everything to make those medicines and medical instruments. He instilled in those things the properties to be utilized for those purposes. Without God creating and instilling healing properties into those things – and without God creating the ability within man to learn this and implement it to serve our medical needs – we would not enjoy the health we do now.

But there's more. He gives us gainful employment through our employers and provides for the necessities of life through the labor of our hands:

“Then Moses said to the people of Israel, ‘See, the Lord has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah; and he has filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, with intelligence, with knowledge, and with all craftsmanship, to devise artistic designs, to work in gold and silver and bronze, in cutting stones for setting, and in carving wood, for work in every skilled craft. And he has inspired him to teach, both him and Oholiab the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan.’ ” (Exodus 35:30–34)

And one step back from that, He has created and given us hands, and attached to hands are arms with strength. He created us with minds to make those arms and hands move and accomplish the work set before us. And with that mind, He has given us reason and senses.

That mind, because of the reason God has instilled in it, is able to work through difficult problems before we press those arms and hands into labor. It allows us to grapple with concepts and run through scenarios instead of having to experience every situation personally. It allows us to learn from the mistakes, as well as from the accomplishments, of ourselves and others. This can be done for our entire body, all our skills and talents, everything that makes us ... us.

So, everything we have and everything we are is a gift from Him. This is what we confess in the First Article of the Creed when we say that we “believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.”

But that is just the First Article of the Creed. We confess two more articles that deal with God's provision for our spiritual well-being. He sent his Son to die and be raised on the third day for our justification. He delivers that justification through the means of grace (baptism, preaching and the Word of God, and the Lord's Supper). And to give you those means of grace, He gives pastors and teachers, etc. Literally everything we have and everything we are in this life – and the next – is an inexpressible gift from God.

And it is for this, all of this, that we give thanks. And that is what stewardship is all about — giving thanks for God's provision for us. To give thanks is more than having an attitude of gratitude, more than just a feeling in our hearts.

It is an action. It begins in the heart, but it doesn't stay there. It works its way out through the mouth in praise for God's gifts and in love and charity through the hands to our neighbors in family, country, and church.

“For all this it is my duty to thank and praise, serve and obey him” (The Small Catechism, 16).

So give thanks to God for His inexpressible gifts — for everything we have and everything we are. Do this not only in word but also in deed.
